

SOMEC: STEFANO ROSA ULIANA APPOINTED TO LEAD MESTIERI

The new role integrates established management experience within the Group and further accelerates the growth of Mestieri, the BU focused on designing and producing custom, high-end interiors.

San Vendemiano (Treviso), May 7, 2024 - Somec S.p.A. (Euronext Milan: SOM), specialising in the design, production and installation of complex turnkey civil and naval projects, announced that it has appointed Stefano Rosa Uliana as the CEO of Mestieri S.p.A. He assumed this role on May 6, 2024.

This new appointment aims to integrate established management experience into the Group and strengthen its leadership, to harness the full potential of the growth process already underway.

Stefano Rosa Uliana holds a degree in Engineering from the University of Trieste. He has worked in the furniture and design sector as CEO of the Calligaris Group, where he also served as General Manager of its American branch from 2010 to 2015. In 2005, he moved to Mexico, becoming Managing Director of Elica America, the American subsidiary of Elica S.p.A., a leader in kitchen hood production. Before that, he spent about ten years at Electrolux, where he held progressively responsible roles in both Italy and Sweden. In addition to nearly twenty years of international experience, eight of which were in the United States, Uliana has worked for multinational companies, family-owned businesses, and private equity-controlled firms, managing development projects and overseeing various M&A transactions.

Mestieri is composed of various Italian companies specializing in the high-quality artisanal processing of different materials, including metals, marble, and wood. These companies contribute to the global realization of iconic projects in residential, retail, hospitality, and naval sectors. In the 2023 fiscal year, Mestieri achieved revenues of 95.7 million euros, a growth of 37.3% compared to the previous year.
